

TEMPLE UNIVERSITY

Temples' Scott Bloomfield and Patrick McLaughlin each scored points in the individual preliminary competition Thursday at the Winter Cup Challenge, but did not qualify for the finals. Bloomfield earned a total of seven points, placing very high on high bar with a score of 13.850, tying for 14th.

McLaughlin competed all-around, placing 33rd with a total score of 79.750. He earned six points, placing best on floor in 17th, earning a score of 14.350.

competing at home in a few weeks at full strength, we will be right on track."

Two freshmen also competed all-around for the Owls in Alex Tighe and Allan Malone. Tighe scored 73.050, posting his best performance on floor. Malone tallied 72.900 all-around, performing best on vault (14.200).

Tyler Croteau competed in three events, faring well on floor (13.850) and parallel bars (13.000). Evan Burke competed on vault, earning a score of 14.200.

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS-CHICAGO

The UIC men's gymnastics team put forth a valiant effort against Iowa, but were unable to defeat the visiting Hawkeyes at the Physical Education Building Saturday night.

The Flames were unable to match Iowa's efforts, falling 340.200-331.050 in the squad's first home competition since the Windy City Invitational in early January.

Senior leadership was in display on Saturday as Andrew Stover lead a 1-2 punch on the high bar, taking first with a 14.000 followed by Nikolai Korepanov's second-place showing with a 13.950 performance. Stover placed second on the parallel bars (14.450) while Korepanov earned a runner-up finish on the rings (14.650).

Neal Thompson, the lone all-around competitor, finished the evening with an 80.550 score.

"I thought that we performed well, even while we were short-handed," said assistant coach Charley Nelson. "When we are back

The team posted season-best scores on the rings (57.500) and parallel bars (56.900) against the Hawkeyes.

ARMY AND NAVY HAD A DUEL MEET SCHEDULED FOR THIS WEEK-END BUT IT WAS CANCELLED IN ADVANCE DUE TO THE IMPENDING STORM IN THE AREA.

Wintry Weather Forces

Cancellation of Tribe Open

The College of William and Mary's 15th-ranked men's gymnastics team was forced to cancel the Sunday, Feb. 7 State Open due to inclement weather conditions throughout the mid-Atlantic region.

PLEASE DISREGARD THE SECOND PAGE OF THIS REPORT. IT IS USUALLY NEEDED BUT NOT THIS WEEK DUE TO THE STORMS.

